Dear Lily,

I have some bad news. My old cat Betty died last night. She was ill last Sunday and didn't eat any food. I took her to see the vet. The vet tried to help her but she was too old. She left the world in the end. I will miss her very much.

Now I am twelve years old. Betty was the same age as me. She was beautiful. She was all white but black on the top of her head. My parents bought her when I was born.

I am feeling very unhappy and I don't know what to do. We are going to have a summer camp in Grade Six this weekend, but I don't want to go. Do you have any advice to make me feel happier? I hope you and your family are well.

Write soon.

China News

19th May 2024

Mrs. Lee is a cleaner. Every day, she cleans up the streets in Sanya. "There's usually not very much rubbish here, but after a public holiday, there's so much more," she said.

Lots of people celebrate Mid-Autumn Festival on the beaches every year. They eat and drink. They have a good time but they leave so much rubbish behind.

"There are so many plastic boxes, plastic bags and empty bottles," said Mrs. Lee. "People should stop using so many plastic bags. They should use the cloth bags to carry their food. They shouldn't throw away their rubbish everywhere. There's rubbish on the beaches, in the streets and even in the sea. We have to take the rubbish out of the sea. It takes us three days to clean up. It takes us a longer time to sort (分类) through the rubbish and recycle some of it."

Land pollution (污染) is a big problem. If we keep on (持续) throwing away so much rubbish, we won't have a clean and beautiful city to live in. This city belongs to all of us. We should start looking after it.
