Dear Aunt Peggy,

How are you? Let me tell you something about my new school. Now I study in Jones Primary School. It's very big with a beautiful garden. My new school is not so close to my home. I need to get up earlier and go to school by subway every day.

My class teacher, Miss Jenny, teaches us maths. My classmates come from different countries. One of them is called Emily. She goes to school on the school bus. She is from Canada, and she can draw very well. She is good at art. We usually talk in English, so I think my English is better now than last two months.

There are many different sports teams like swimming, basketball and tennis in my school. But I only joined the badminton team. The coach said I played very well, and someday I would play for China in the Olympic Games and win a medal! I'm looking forward to seeing you.

Yours,
Amy
