Title: Charlie and the Chocolate Factory
Reviewed by: Jack (11 years old)

Writer: Roald Dahl
Star Rating: ★★★★★

What's the book about?

This book tells us a story about a boy called Charlie. His family is very poor—they don't have much money or food.

There is a chocolate factory near Charlie's house. It is Willy Wonka's factory. Willy Wonka invites five children to visit his factory.

Charlie goes inside the factory. He has a great adventure there.

My favourite character:

My favourite character is Charlie because he is very kind. I don't like the other children because they are not friendly.

What do I think of the book?

The story is very funny and there are a lot of imaginary things. It also tells us that it's not okay to be greedy. So I give this book five stars.

Word Bank:

adventure n. 冒险    imaginary adj. 想象的, 虚构的;    greedy adj. 贪婪的;

- ( ) 1. Who wrote this book review?
A. Roald Dahl.                      B. Jack.                      C. Charlie.
- ( ) 2. How is Charlie's family in the book?
A. Poor.                                  B. Rich.                      C. Funny.
- ( ) 3. Where does Charlie go in the story?
A. A garden.                              B. A chocolate factory.    C. A school.
- ( ) 4. What does Jack think of Charlie?
A. Greedy.                                  B. Not friendly.              C. Kind.

- ( ) 5. Why does Jack give this book five stars?
A. Because there are many imaginary and funny things.
B. Because this book tells us not to be greedy.
C. Both A and B.

十三、读短文，根据内容选择最佳选项，将相应的标号填入括号内。(共5分)

People like to eat rice. Rice is a kind of grass. There are about 7,200 kinds of rice. Rice grows in fields called paddies. Some rice needs lots of water to grow.

In China, rice fields have a history of over 8,000 years. Chinese people are good at growing and cooking rice. There are many sayings about rice. If you say "I lost my rice bowl", it means "I lost my job." Throwing a rice bowl on the floor means the person is angry. Parents teach their children to eat every grain of rice in their bowls, because it is not easy for farmers to grow rice.

Yuan Longping is called "the father of hybrid rice". He helped China grow more rice than before. Now farmers grow Yuan's hybrid rice in many countries. Hybrid rice helps many hungry people around the world. Yuan Longping was a great man and we should all learn from him.
