"How much does it weigh(称重量)?" Cao Cao asked his officials. One of them suggested building a huge scale(秤).

Another man said they could cut the elephant into small parts, weigh one part at a time, and add up the weights. But nobody wanted to kill the elephant.

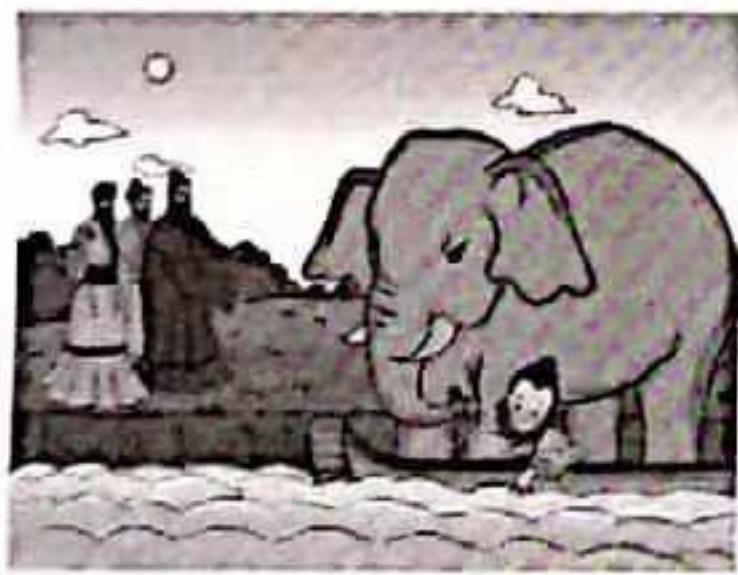

Cao Chong pushed his way to the front. He said he knew how to weigh the elephant! Everyone laughed at him.

He led the elephant down into the boat, the water came up, Cao Chong marked the water line. Then they drove the elephant out and put stones in the boat until the water came up to the same line.

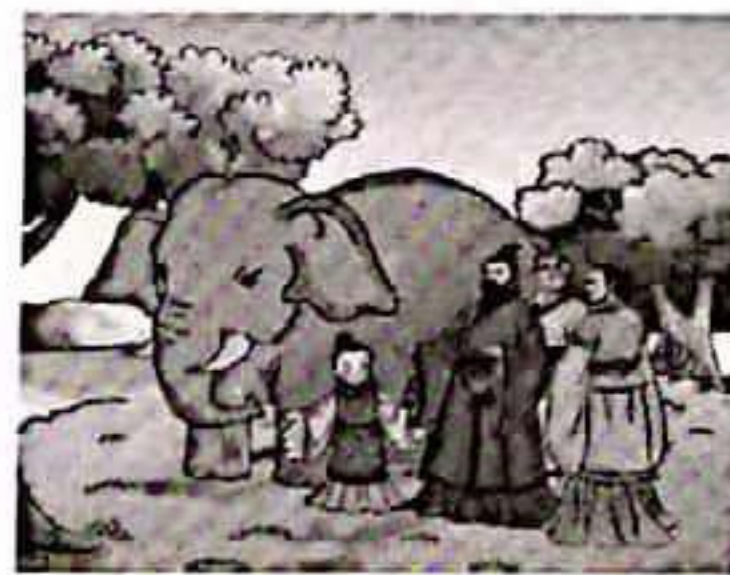

Finally, he told them to weigh each of the stones and add up all the weights. In this way, he weighed the elephant.
